Whitehall, April 16.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lincoln, beg Leave, at this Time of univerſal Joy, to approach your Majeſty with our moſt cordial Congratulations upon your Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

Your Majeſty's firm and invariable Adherence to the Principles of our Conſtitution has juſtly endeared your Majeſty to every Deſcription of Men in this free and proſperous Nation; and your Majeſty's bright Example of Piety and Virtue, and zealous Concern for the Intereſts of Religion, have in a peculiar Degree impreſſed the Minds of thoſe, who are by their Profeſſion devoted to the Service of God, with the livelieſt Sentiments of Affection and Attachment to your Royal Perſon.

We feel, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, the Goodneſs of God in reſtoring your Majeſty at ſo important a Moment. We earneſtly pray the Almighty that your valuable Life may be long preſerved in uninterrupted Health; and that your Majeſty may continue to receive from your People the ſame Teſtimonies of unſhaken and grateful Fidelity which have been diſplayed upon the late intereſting Occaſion.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter, beg Leave to expreſs before your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned and heartfelt Joy on the welcome Aſſurances we have received of your Majeſty's perfect Reſtoration to Health after a long and dangerous Illneſs: A joy common to all our Fellow-Subjects, but more peculiarly felt by us, who during the Time this Country was honoured with your Royal Preſence, were indulged with frequent Opportunities of witneſſing many affecting Inſtances of your Majeſty's Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs.

The ſilent Sorrow and Solicitude which appeared in every Countenance, when the firſt Tidings of your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition were made known, are now happily exchanged for the Voice of Exultation and Gratitude. The fervent Prayers of an afflicted Kingdom, which were humbly offered to the Throne of Grace for your Majeſty's Recovery, have not been offered to the Throne of Grace in vain. In the natural Expreſſions of Grief and Gladneſs, diſcovered by your Subjects on both Occaſions, your Majeſty has been furniſhed with the moſt unequivocal Teſtimonies of their Loyalty and Love, and how truly you poſſeſs the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People.

We of the Clergy are particularly bound to return our devouteſt Thanks to Divine Providence, which ſo ſeaſonably interpoſed for our Deliverance in the needful Time of Trouble; as, beſides the general Regard your Majeſty is known to entertain for the Intereſts of true Religion, we have had abundant Experience of your ſincere and ſteady Attachment to the Church of England: That Church, of which, from Principle as well as from Policy, your Majeſty hath ever approved yourſelf the Defender, and to whom it ſtill looks up as its Support and Protector in all Dangers.

With Hearts full of Duty and Affection to your Majeſty, we ſhall not fail to continue our earneſt Supplication to the Great Giver of all Good, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long diſtinguiſhed by every Circumſtance which may render it a Bleſſing to yourſelf and to your Kingdoms; that our moſt amiable and gracious Queen, whoſe higheſt Ambition it is to be known to conſtitute the domeſtic Happineſs of your Majeſty, may, together with your Majeſty, meet with every domeſtic Reward; and that your Subjects, now juſtly ſenſible of the Importance of your Life, from the Danger of being deprived of it, may expreſs in their Conduct that dutiful Obedience to your Majeſty, that Submiſſion to lawful Authority, and that conſcientious Regard to the Precepts of our Holy Religion, which becomes a free and wiſe and enlightened People.

to

[Delivered by the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop.]

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe, with the moſt dutiful Reſpect preſume to approach your Majeſty, and to offer our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

When your Majeſty was afflicted, your Kingdoms exhibited one uniform Scene of Sympathy and Sorrow; but the ſame Providence that reſcued your Majeſty from the Hand of the Aſſaſſin, has been pleaſed to raiſe you from the Bed of Sickneſs, and reſtore you to the Tears and anxious Wiſhes of your People. The mournful Scene paſſed away at a critical Moment, and was ſucceeded by the ſincereſt Tranſports of univerſal Exultation and Joy. Under the Adminiſtration of an all-wiſe Providence, Good is often derived out of Evil; and your Majeſty, through your late ſevere Viſitation, has learned one important Truth, that will ever be a Cordial to your Royal Mind, and give a Luſtre to the future Annals of your Reign, that your Dominion is firmly eſtabliſhed, where every good Prince is ambitious to eſtabliſh it, in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects.

And may your Majeſty be crowned with Length of Days in the full Enjoyment of the perfect Health which Heaven has reſtored to you, and continue to your faithful Subjects the Bleſſings of a juſt, a mild and auſpicious Reign! And may the Heirs to your Crown become Heirs to your Virtues, and be Inſtruments of conveying the like Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Ely.

WITH the moſt ſincere Thankfulneſs to Heaven for your Majeſty's Reſtoration to Health, and the active Exertion of your Regal Power, we preſume to offer the Expreſſions of our Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family on ſo very intereſting an Occaſion.

Senſible as we have ever been of the many Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and happy in the full Poſſeſſion of our Civil and Religious Privileges, it was impoſſible for us not to ſympathize in that univerſal Affliction and Deſpondency which, during your Majeſty's Illneſs, ſat ſo heavy on your Subjects, we felt for the perſonal Safety and Suffering of ſo juſtly beloved a Sovereign; we ſhared in the domeſtic Diſtreſſes of your exemplary and moſt amiable Conſort, our Gracious Queen, and your whole Royal Houſe; nor could even the wiſe and conſtitutional Meaſures that were propoſed in Alleviation of the public and national Calamity afford an adequate Conſolation.

Our only Refuge on this, as under every other diſaſtrous Event, was to implore the Interpoſition of that Almighty Being, by whom alone Kings reign, and whoſe Providential Goodneſs to us we had ſo long experienced under the many and increaſing Advantages of your Government. It hath pleaſed God to liſten to our Supplications, and, in Mercy to His People, to reſtore your Majeſty to yourſelf, to your Family, and your Kingdoms, in perfect Health, and in full Poſſeſſion of thoſe great Endowments which have hitherto and will ever render you our Boaſt and Praiſe.

To expreſs our full Sentiments of Joy and Exultation on this happy Occaſion is not within our Power: No Events have ever excited the Emotions of our Hearts between Fear and Hope, Dejection and Triumph, as the late Period of our Diſtreſs, and the preſent Moment of our Deliverance.

Accept, therefore, Gracious Sovereign, our unfeigned though imperfect Congratulations, and ſuffer us to add our Prayers for your long Continuance in uninterrupted Proſperity and Health; that under the Influence of your intereſting Virtues all who reap the Benefits of them may be happy, and may know how to value their Felicity.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AMIDST the general Joy diffuſed through the whole Nation on the great and happy Event of the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, may the Preſident and Council, with the reſt of the Academicians and Aſſociates of the Royal Academy, be permitted humbly to offer their moſt ſincere Congratulations on this joyful Occaſion.

Impreſſed as we are with a due Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy in common with all other Subjects, from the Protection which your Majeſty has always been pleaſed to extend to the Arts in general, and the peculiar Patronage which has been graciouſly afforded to the Royal Academy in particular, we preſume to hope for Pardon for this Intruſion.

The Members of this Academy are truly ſenſible how much the Proſperity and Advancement of the Arts which they profeſs are connected with and dependent on the Health and Welfare of their Royal Patron and Protector.

For the long Continuance of your Majeſty's Health we offer up our moſt fervent Prayers, and indulge our Hope that thoſe Arts, which have been ſo ſucceſsfully planted under your Majeſty's Royal Patronage, may grow and flouriſh to their full Maturity and Perfection, during a long, happy and glorious Reign.

Signed by the Preſident and all the Academicians.

[Delivered by Sir Joſhua Reynolds, Preſident.]

Were it poſſible for our Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to receive any Addition, our Happineſs muſt be heightened by having been Witneſſes of that Royal Munificence and boundleſs Condeſcenſion which your

Majeſty

Majeſty and your excellent Queen ſo graciouſly manifeſted in your late Viſit to this County, which have cleft Impreſſions upon us too durable to be effaced, too ſtrong to be expreſſed.

It is our moſt earneſt Prayer that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Juſtice, may preſerve your Majeſty's Health; that your Government may be happy and proſperous to the lateſt Period of human Life; and that a long Line of Princes, ſprung from your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe, may guard the Intereſts of your People, and preſerve the Conſtitution which is dear to them, to the lateſt Ages.

We ſincerely hope and earneſtly pray the Omnipotent Ruler of the Univerſe long to continue your Majeſty in an uninterrupted State of good Health, and the full Enjoyment of every domeſtic Felicity, the Guardian of Civil and Religious Liberty, the Patron of Science, and the happy Inſtrument of preſerving and improving the Commerce, Agriculture and general Welfare of an enlightened, free and loyal People.

By Appointment of the Meeting,
Richard Wilding, Sheriff.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, aſſembled by public Advertiſement at Cockermouth, on Monday the 6th Day of April, 1789.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty that we join, in the fulleſt Manner, in thoſe Sentiments of Joy and Exultation which this happy Event has diffuſed through every Claſs of your Majeſty's Subjects, and that it is the earneſt Wiſh of our Hearts that your Majeſty may long continue, by the Bleſſing of Providence, to rule over a free, affectionate and grateful People.

Long may your Majeſty's public Conduct continue to protect, and your private to adorn, this Country; and may each ſucceeding Day convince your Majeſty of the Loyalty and Affection which your People entertain for your Royal Perſon, Conſort and Family.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter, beg Leave to join our Fellow Subjects in congratulating your Majeſty on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the Health of our moſt beloved Sovereign; an Event which we can never contemplate but with the moſt awful Sentiments of the Divine Goodneſs, or without adoring the Hand which has been ſo viſibly ſtretched out for our Deliverance at a Time of the greateſt national Diſtreſs.

We had ſeen too many pleaſing Proofs of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Manners, whilſt we were honoured with your Royal Preſence in the Courſe of the laſt Summer, not to ſympathize moſt truly with your Majeſty during the Sufferings of the beſt of Kings and of Men: And we ſhall not ceaſe our moſt hearty Prayers to Almighty God, who hath turned our Mourning into Joy, that your Majeſty may long continue in the full Poſſeſſion of that Happineſs which is now reſtored to you, and in the Exerciſe of all thoſe amiable and domeſtic Graces from which the reſt of your Sex, if they have any virtuous Emulation, will take their Example.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lincoln, humbly preſume to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Health of our moſt Gracious Sovereign; an Event peculiarly intereſting to your Majeſty, and of the greateſt Importance to the Welfare of this Country.

Your Majeſty's amiable and excellent Qualities, which have long excited univerſal Praiſe and Admiration, have appeared with additional Luſtre on the late trying Occaſion. We are truly ſenſible that we have a Queen diſtinguiſhed by every Virtue that can adorn her Sex, and who will, under every Circumſtance, act with Prudence and with Dignity.

That your Majeſty may long continue the Source of domeſtic Comfort to our beloved Sovereign, and that your Poſterity may emulate that Conduct which is the Pride and Happineſs of the Subjects of this Realm, will be our conſtant and fervent Prayer.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church of Wells, humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept our Congratulations on the great and happy Event of His Majeſty's Recovery; an Event peculiarly intereſting to your Majeſty, as well as to every Subject of the Britiſh Empire.

We have ever looked up to your Majeſty with that awful and dutiful Reſpect which your high Station and eminent Virtues entitle you to; but we find our Hearts more deeply affected by the Wiſdom, the Piety and Magnanimity which your Majeſty has diſplayed under the ſevereſt Affliction that could happen to your Majeſty or to this Country. The preſent Reward your Majeſty receives for your pious and dutiful Exertions is an ample one; the Reſtoration of the King to yourſelf and to His People; but you receive it only as an Earneſt of a more glorious one that awaits you from the Hands of a Righteous Providence at a future Day; which, for the ſake of His Majeſty and His Kingdoms, we earneſtly pray may be a diſtant one.

The general Joy which this great and auſpicious Event has diffuſed through every Part of the Empire, is conſiderably augmented by reflecting on the Happineſs which that Event has afforded to your Majeſty, and the reſt of the Royal Family; with whoſe Grief, and with whoſe Joy, the whole Nation ſympathize, and offer up their Prayers that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and never more be embittered by any Calamity.

Signed by the Preſident and all the Academicians.

May the Providence of that Great Being, whoſe merciful Interpoſition we adore, continue His Bleſſings to your Majeſties and to your Royal Offspring, and preſerve you very long to enjoy domeſtic Comfort, and to the People the Influence of that Example by which you add Luſtre to the Britiſh Throne.

That your Majeſty may long continue to be bleſt with every earthly Felicity; and that your illuſtrious and amiable Progeny may zealouſly imitate all thoſe exalted Virtues which ſo eminently adorn and dignify their Royal Parents, will be our conſtant and earneſt Prayer.

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Cheltenham, beg Leave to pay our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on the Re-eſtabliſhment of our gracious Sovereign's Health. We who ſaw, from the Indulgence of your Royal Reſidence among us, the reciprocal Attention between your Majeſty, the Princeſſes, and the beſt of Relatives, find ourſelves inadequate to expreſs our Feelings as we wiſh, for ſo bleſſed and happy an Event.

May the Almighty long preſerve your Majeſty to be a Bleſſing to this Country.

To behold Goodneſs, even in the loweſt Station of Life, with Admiration and Reſpect, hath always been the true Characteriſtic of generous Britons. How greatly then muſt their Veneration and Regard be raiſed, when they ſee ſo bright and illuſtrious an Example in your Royal Perſonage, in whom every lovely Virtue ſhines forth with moſt brilliant Splendor.

The Conduct of your Majeſty, through the Whole of your late great and trying Affliction, hath exhibited a moſt ſtriking Inſtance of your unbounded Goodneſs: In that Affliction we have moſt ſincerely participated with you: And your Care and Attention towards our beloved King have ſerved to increaſe if poſſible the Loyalty and Eſteem of all your faithful Subjects for the beſt of Queens.

May you both long live happy in each other, a Comfort to your Royal Offspring, and a Bleſſing to all around you! May each revolving Year produce additional Luſtre to your Reign, and add new Happineſs to yourſelves: Till at length, in a good old Age, it ſhall pleaſe the King of Kings to exchange your your terreſtrial Crown for one more glorious, never fading, eternal in the Heavens!

Moſt Gracious Queen,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the Recovery of our Moſt Excellent Sovereign from His late Indiſpoſition; and we thank God that the Gloom, which ſo lately overſhadowed the Whole of His Majeſty's Dominions, is happily diſpelled by the Reſtoration of His Majeſty's Health; a Health we cannot too highly prize! A Monarch we cannot too much revere!

When we felt, as a loyal People, for His Majeſty's Affliction, we felt alſo for thoſe Cares which muſt have oppreſſed your Royal Boſom, and looked up with Admiration on the Fortitude with which your Majeſty, ſo ſituated, ſupported the Duties of a Wife, and Dignity of a Queen.

We moſt ardently pray that your Majeſty may long experience an uninterrupted State of Felicity, as well in the full Enjoyment of every domeſtic Happineſs, as in the Conſciouſneſs of deſerving and poſſeſſing the ſincere Regard and moſt dutiful Attachment of all His Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Cliſton Dartmouth Hardneſs, in Council aſſembled, with the moſt ſincere Reſpect beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the Health of your Royal Conſort, our moſt gracious Sovereign, which we conſider to be of the utmoſt Importance to the domeſtic Happineſs of your Majeſty and your Royal Family, and a Bleſſing to all His Majeſty's faithful Subjects, who ſincerely ſympathized with your Majeſty in your late Affliction.

We want Words to expreſs our Gratitude and Thankfulneſs to your Majeſty for your ready Acquieſcence with the Wiſhes of both Houſes of Parliament in conſenting to accept the important Charge, which in their Wiſdom, and with the univerſal Approbation of their Country, they judged too ſacred and of too much Conſequence to the Happineſs of your Majeſty, and the Well-being of theſe Kingdoms, to be committed to any other Hands than thoſe of your Majeſty.

Your Majeſty's amiable Conduct on this and every other Occaſion cannot fail of endearing you to the Inhabitants of theſe Kingdoms.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

A Retroſpect to the late ſevere Malady with which it had pleaſed the Divine Providence to afflict the King, brings to our Recollection the heart-rending Anxieties with which your Majeſty's Mind muſt have then been oppreſſed, as well as the Tranſports of Joy which muſt now ſucceed them by His Majeſty's happy Recovery:

We, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Principal Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Clergy, Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Things for the Reſtoration of His Majeſty's Health, moſt ſincerely and affectionately congratulate your Majeſty on that joyful Event; an Event full of Bleſſing to this Nation. MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to condeſcend to accept the ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations of us the Inhabitants of the Borough of Goſport, on the Reſtoration of our much loved Sovereign to the Bleſſing of His former Health. Pardon us, Madam, if at the ſame Time we preſume to offer to your Majeſty our humble Tribute of Applauſe and Admiration of thoſe amiable Virtues, which for ſo many Years have uniformly actuated your Conduct in the ſeveral Capacities of a Conſort, a Parent, and a Queen. Theſe have ſhone forth peculiarly conſpicuous through the gloomy Cloud of the late Calamity, and have thereby received a new Brilliancy in Addition to their former Luſtre. That your Majeſty may long continue to enjoy the Fruits of theſe Virtues, unembittered by any unſeen Affliction or Anxiety; and that, after holding forth to your Subjects for many ſucceeding Years the ſame illuſtrious Example of every domeſtic Virtue, you may at length receive an everlaſting and ineſtimable Reward, is the ardent, affectionate and unceaſing Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and devoted Servants and Subjects.
